So it was resolved in the affirmative.

The bill being read throughout, the question was put, That the said bill do pass? Resolved in the affirmative.

A petition from Walter Smith, and others, of Calvert county, praying the chancellor may be authorized to direct a sale of the real property of their deceased father Walter Smith, was preferred, read, and referred to Mr. Taney, Mr. Carcaud and Mr. Brome, to consider and report thereon.

The following question being propounded to the house, was read, to wit:

RESOLVED, That the state of Maryland become a subscriber to, and stockholder in, the bank of Baltimore, to and for the number of shares reserved to the said state by the act of assembly incorporating said bank, and that the treasurer make the subscription therefor in behalf of the said state, according to the terms, and in the manner and form, prescribed in said act, on or before the first day of February next; and that the said treasurer shall, at any time, and at all times hereafter, when there shall be three thousand dollars unappropriated money in the treasury, pay the same to the cashier of the said bank, or his order, to be applied towards paying for said shares, taking the receipt of the said cashier therefor, or of the person authorized to receive the same by his order; provided always, that nothing in this resolution shall in any manner affect any money that is now in the treasury which may be necessary to pay the civil list, the journals of account, and the monies appropriated towards improving the navigation of the Susquehanna; provided also, that the said treasurer shall also reserve a sufficient sum for the payment of the civil list during the several years that this resolution shall have an operation, as also a sum sufficient, in his estimation, annually, for the payment of the journals of accounts in the several years that they shall respectively become due; provided always, that the said treasurer shall not, in any one year, pay unto the hands of the said cashier a sum exceeding ninety thousand dollars, unless by express consent of the president and directors of said bank, previously signified in writing in the manner prescribed in the said act.

On motion, the question was put, That the further consideration of the said resolution be postponed until the first day of June next? The yeas and nays being required, appeared as follows:
