The following message being prepared, was sent to the senate, with the bill to regulate public ferries, by the clerk.

BY THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES, DECEMBER 27, 1799.

GENTLEMEN OF THE SENATE,

WE cannot assent to the amendments proposed to the bill, entitled, An act to regulate public ferries, because they change and introduce principles in direct violation of private rights. The laws now in force are uncertain and inexplicit. The property and rights of citizens to an amount exceeding twenty thousand dollars per annum is at stake; and under this impression we solicit an early conference with you on this interesting business, and have appointed Mr. Digges, Mr. Key, Mr. Edmondson, Mr. Carroll and Mr. Duckett, to join such gentlemen as you may appoint conferees on this subject.

By order,

W. HARWOOD, clk.

The bill to appoint commissioners to examine, survey and lay out, the several roads therein mentioned, was read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate by the clerk.
