BY THE SENATE, DECEMBER 9, 1799.

GENTLEMEN,

WE have dissented to your resolution in favour of George Twilly, because the positive direction which it contains to the register of the land-office to issue a patent upon the payment of the caution money on the vacant land mentioned in that resolution may possibly interfere with the rights of other persons. If your house will originate a resolution embracing no other object than the releasing the said George Twilly from paying the sum at which the improvements upon that vacant land have been valued, or sufficiently protecting the rights of all other persons, it will meet with the concurrence of this house.

We have also dissented to your resolution in favour of Tristram Martin and Abner Parrott, because the judgments recited therein do not agree with the copies thereof transmitted by the clerk of the general court of the eastern shore; a resolution correcting this inaccuracy will be agreed to by the senate.
