A Supplement to the act, * entitled, An act to erect a town in Talbot county. Lib. JG. No. 3. fol. 315.

Passed 3d of
Jan. 1800.
* 1785, ch. 31.

WHEREAS it is represented to this general assembly, that although the commissioners appointed in and by the original act to which this is a supplement, did proceed to survey and lay off the ground described therein, and to divide, locate, mark and bound the same into lots, streets, lanes and alleys, and to reserve and sell the same respectively in the manner and under the authority prescribed and given by the said original act, yet the several proceedings of the said commissioners have never been arranged, nor the plot nor certificates of the said survey, nor of the lots, streets, lanes and alleys, been lodged with the clerk of Talbot county, nor recorded in his office, as required by the said act: And whereas three of the said commissioners, and the clerk and surveyor employed by them, are deceased, and doubts may be reasonably entertained whether the two surviving commissioners have now a power to complete the duties which the original commissioners were bound to perform, and the security of purchasers and owners of lots in the said town may be greatly affected without the aid of the legislature; therefore,

Preamble.
