

Ordered, That the President of this Convention, be authorised and directed to allow William Cook, (a free colored man) the same compensation for his services as was allowed him by the House of Delegates at its last session.

On motion of Mr. Grason, it was Ordered, That William Glover, be allowed the per diem of a Doorkeeper, for his services in attending to the committees of the Convention.

On motion of Mr. Harbine, it was Ordered, That the committee on the Judiciary inquire into the expediency of providing for quarterly sessions of the Courts of common law of the several counties, Howard District and Baltimore city.

On motion of Mr. Eccleston, it was Ordered, That the committee on future constitutional amendments, inquire into the expediency of incorporating into the new constitution the 59th article of the present constitution, and also the additional provision, "that no Convention for the purpose of altering, amending or re-organizing the constitution, shall be called, unless by a law passed by two-thirds of each branch of the Legislature."

On motion of Mr. Tuck, it was Ordered, That the committee on the Attorney General and his Deputies, consider the propriety of conferring upon the Governor and Senate the appointment of the Attorney General, and of providing for the election by the Legislature on joint ballot, of a Deputy Attorney General for each county; the Attorney General to be removable at the pleasure of the Governor, and vacancies occurring in the office of Deputy Attorney General to be filled by the Governor until the next meeting of the Legislature.

On motion of Mr. Tuck, it was Ordered, That the committee on the Bill of Rights consider the propriety of declaring that in all applications for bail, where the party accused resides beyond the limits of the State, bail may be allowed or refused at the discretion of the judge or justice, to whom the application may be made.

On motion of Mr. Brown,

The Convention took up for consideration the report submitted by Mr. Chambers, of Kent, on yesterday, as chairman of the committee on the Elective Franchise.

Mr. Chambers, of Kent, moved to amend the first section of said report by inserting after the word "person," in the 1st line, these words "above the age of twenty-one years;"

Mr. Bowie, moved to amend said amendment, by striking out the same, and substituting in lieu thereof, these words "of twenty-one years of age or upwards, and;"

Mr. Chambers, of Kent, moved for a division of the question, which was put on striking out; and Determined in the affirmative.