

in the same manner, and from the same Gubernatorial District, who shall continue in office for the same time and possess the same qualifications.

In voting for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, the electors shall distinguish for whom they vote as Governor, and for whom they vote as Lieutenant Governor. (The Lieutenant Governor shall, by virtue of his office, be President of the Senate, and shall when the Senate is equally divided, give the casting vote.) In case of the death, resignation, removal from office, inability or refusal of the Governor to serve, or of his impeachment, or absence from the State, the Lieutenant Governor shall exercise the power and authority appertaining to the office of Governor, until another be chosen at the periodical election, and be duly qualified, or until the Governor impeached, absent or disabled shall be acquitted, return, or his disability be removed.

SEC. 21. Whenever the Government shall be administered by the Lieutenant Governor, or he shall be unable to attend as President of the Senate, the Senate shall elect one of their own members as President for the time being, and if during the vacancy of the office of Governor, the Lieutenant Governor shall die, resign, refuse to serve or be removed from office, or be unable to serve or if he shall be impeached or be absent from the State, the President of the Senate for the time being, shall in like manner administer the Government until he shall be superceded by a Governor or Lieutenant Governor. The Lieutenant Governor shall whilst he acts as President of the Senate, receive for his services the same compensation which shall be allowed to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and no more; and during the time he shall administer the Government as Governor, he shall receive the same compensation which the Governor would have received for the same time. The President of the Senate for the time being shall in like manner, during the time he shall administer the Government receive the same compensation which the Governor would have received. If the Lieutenant Governor shall be required to administer the Government, and shall, whilst in such administration, die, resign, or be absent from the State during the recess of the Legislature, it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, to convene the Senate for the purpose of choosing a President for the time being.

SEC. 22. There shall be an Attorney General of the State, who shall be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate; and there shall be a Secretary of State, who shall also be appointed by the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, both of whom shall continue in office during the term of service of the Governor by whom they shall be so appointed, subject, nevertheless, to removal for cause, and the Secretary shall keep a fair register of all official acts and proceedings of the Governor, and shall whenever required, lay the same and all papers, minutes and vouchers relative thereto, before the Legislature or either house thereof; and shall perform such
