And that no majority appearing no election was had.

Mr. Ridgely offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That after the next ballot, all the names be dropped except the two highest, and the person receiving the highest number of votes on the first ballot thereafter taken be, declared President.

Mr. Brent, of Baltimore city, offered the following as a substitute:

Resolved, That in each count after the first ensuing count, the lowest candidate in the preceding count be dropped, and no vote be received in any succeeding count for such lowest candidate.

Mr. Magraw moved to lay both the resolution and substitute on the table;

Determined in the affirmative.
