

a grand jury, and conviction of a petit jury of said judicial district, or by the Governor, upon address of the General Assembly two thirds of the members of each house concurring in such address.

CHANCELLOR.

Sec. 22. There shall be a Chancellor elected for each of the Inferior Judicial Districts, whose term of office, qualifications and salary shall be the same as is herein provided for the Judges of the Inferior Judicial Districts, and who shall be elected in the same manner, and removable for same causes.

Sec. 23. The Chancellor shall have and exercise the equity jurisdiction now exercised by the county courts sitting as courts of equity, in the several counties for which he shall have been elected. He shall hold his courts at such time and place as are now prescribed or may hereafter be provided for by law. He shall have jurisdictions in all applications for the benefit of the insolvent laws within his district of this State, and the supervision and control of the trustees thereof.

ORPHANS' COURT.

Sec. 24. The Chancellor elected for each of the Inferior Judicial Districts shall be Judge of the Orphans' court of each county in their respective district, who shall have all the powers now vested in the Orphans Courts of the several counties of this State, subject to such regulations as the Legislature may hereafter establish. It shall be the duty of the Chancellor or Judge of the Orphans court to attend at least six times in every year, and oftener when the business of the county may require it, to examine into and discharge the duties as Judge of the Orphans court for each county in his district, as are now or hereafter may be provided for by law. He shall examine into and revise the proceedings of the register of wills of each county, establish such rules and orders, not inconsistent with the law, as may tend to facilitate the business of the court.

Sect. 25. There shall be a Register of Wills for the Orphans Court of each county in the State, who shall be elected by a plurality vote of the legal voters of the county, who shall discharge the duties now or which may hereafter be required by law, whose term of office, qualifications, manner of election, and removal shall be the same as those herein provided for the clerks to the courts of the said counties. He shall also discharge the duties of register in chancery in such manner as may be required by law. The legislature shall provide a suitable annual salary in lieu of fees and perquisites as at present exists.

Sec. 26. The High Court of Chancery shall continue as at present established, with such modifications as may be made by law, until the year 1860.
