

YEAS AND NAYS—

On Mr. Shriver's motion to lay on the table the resolution in favor of Samuel Peacock, 766

On Mr. Weems' motion to lay on the table Mr. Chandler's resolution in favor of Washington B. Chichester, and the amendments thereto, 767

On Mr. Dorsey's motion to suspend the rule, 769, 770

On Mr. Ricaud's motion to lay on the table, the motion of Mr. John Newcomer to reconsider the vote of the Convention allowing extra compensation to Samuel Peacock, 770

On Mr. Constable's motion to postpone until the 1st of January the motion of Mr. John Newcomer, to reconsider the the vote of the Convention allowing Samuel Peacock extra compensation, 771

On Mr. John Newcomer's motion to postpone the resolution in favor of William Hall, 771 772

On Mr. Stephenson's motion to lay on the table the order submitted by Mr. McCubbin in relation to extra compensation to be allowed certain officers of the Convention, 774

On the motion of Mr. John Newcomer to lay on the table the order submitted by Mr. Grason, allowing the President of the Convention a per diem of six dollars, 774, 775

On Mr. Shriver's motion to amend the order of Mr. Grason, allowing the President of the Convention six dollars per diem., by striking out "six," and inserting "five," 775

On the adoption of the order allowing the President of the Convention six dollars per diem., 775

On Mr. Ridgely's motion that all the officers of the Convention that have not received any extra pay, shall receive their mileage, 775

On the 28th section of the report of the committee on the Judiciary Department, as amended by the Revisory committee, 777