The question then recurred on the adoption of the section as thus amended.

Mr. Tuck moved an amendment.

After some explanatory conversation on the part of Messrs. TUCK, GWINN and CHAMBERS, of Kent,

Mr. CHAMBERS, of Kent, suggested that the object avowed in the amendment of the gentleman from Prince George's, (Mr. Tuck,) was accomplished in the amendment of the gentleman from Baltimore city, (Mr. Gwinn.) We might not all see through the same spectacles, but he thought that when the Convention met on Monday, in a calmer mood, the fact would be seen to be such as he had stated.

Therefore he moved to adjourn.

The Convention refused to adjourn.

Mr. Tuck withdrew his amendment.

Some conversation followed on a point of order between Mr. BRENT, of Baltimore city, and the PRESIDENT.

Mr. GWINN moved to amend the amendment, by inserting the following words, to precede the said section:

"The style of all laws of this State, shall be: 'Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland,' and."

The amendment was agreed to.

The section, as amended, was then adopted.

And the Convention adjourned until Monday at 12 o'clock.
