

to prevent the expenses under the new system from rising above what they have hitherto been.

Mr. WEEMS gave notice, that at the proper time, he would move an amendment to fix the per diem allowance of the judges of the orphans' courts.

Mr. BROWN demanded the yeas and nays, which were ordered, and being taken, resulted—ayes 22, noes 49—as follows:

Affirmative—Messrs. Morgan, Hopewell, Ricaud, Weems, Howard, Bell, Chandler, Lloyd, Sherwood, of Talbot, Sprigg, McCubbin, Jacobs, Stephenson, Nelson, Fiery, Michael Newcomer, Davis, Brewer, Waters, Parke, Shower and Brown—22.

Negative—Chapman, Pres't, Lee, Chambers, of Kent, Mitchell, Donaldson, Wells, Randall, Kent, Dalrymple, Merrick, Jenifer, Buchanan, Ridgely, John Dennis, Crisfield, Dashiell, Hodson, Eccleston, Phelps, McCullough, Miller, McLane, Bowie, Tuck, Spencer, George, Wright, Dirickson, McMaster, Fooks, Thomas, Johnson, Biser, Annan, Sappington, McHenry, Thawley, Gwinn, Sherwood, of Balt. city, Schley, John Newcomer, Harbine, Anderson, Weber, Holliday, Slicer, Fitzpatrick and Smith—49.

So the amendment was rejected.

Mr. BOWIE then offered, as a substitute for the amendment and substitute, the following:

“There shall be an orphans' court in each county of the state, to consist of one judge, who shall be elected by a plurality vote of the qualified voters of the said counties. He shall have, use and exercise, within the limits of the said counties respectively, the jurisdiction which the judges of the orphans' courts of this state now have, and also the same chancery jurisdiction which the chancellor of this state or the present county courts as courts of equity now have. He shall hold his office for the term of six years, and shall have the same qualifications as are required for the judges of the county or circuit courts as prescribed by this constitution. His salary shall be twelve hundred dollars per annum, the one half of which shall be paid by the said counties respectively, and the other half from the state treasury.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned until to-morrow morning, 9 o'clock.
