So the said amendment was adopted.

Mr. Clarke submitted the following amendment :

Sec. 3. Strike out all after the word "the" in 1st line and insert,"

"Legislature, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, and at its first session after the returns of each National census are published under the authority of Congress, shall apportion the members of the House of Delegates among the several counties of the State and the city of Baltimore according to the population of each, provided the whole number of Delegates shall never exceed eighty-five members, and provided that each county and said city shall be divided into separate Election Districts of compact, contiguous territory, the qualified voters in each of which districts shall at the time and in the manner in which Delegates are chosen, elect one Delegate, who has for one year next before his election been a resident of the District from which he shall be elected. The apportionment of the Delegates among the several counties and the city of Baltimore shall remain the same as provided by the present Constitution, until the second election held for members of the House of Delegates after the adoption of this Constitution, and

The General Assembly shall hereafter elect United States Senators and all officers who are elected by the Legislature, by a concurrent vote of the two Houses and not by joint ballot."

Mr. Thomas submitted the following amendment to the amendment,

10th line, insert the word "white," before population;
