Galloway,

So the question upon its adoption was decided in the negative.

The question recurring upon the amendment submitted by Mr. Clarke, to wit:

Sec. 3. Strike out all after the word "the," in 1st line, and insert the words:

"Legislature, at its first session after the adoption of this Constitution, and at its first session after the returns of each national census are published under the authority of Congress, shall apportion the members of the House of Delegates among the several counties of the State and the city of Baltimore, according to the population of each, provided the whole number of Delegates shall never exceed eighty-five members, and provided that each county and said city shall be divided into separate election districts of compact, contiguous territory, the qualified voters in each of which districts shall, at the time and in the manner in which delegates are chosen, elect one delegate, who has for one year next before his election been a resident of the district from which he shall be elected.
