

entitled to be registered in the State, and who may be serving in the army of the United States, shall be held and taken as the only evidence of qualification to vote at any election hereafter, and the General Assembly shall by law provide for taking the votes of soldiers serving in the army of the United States, in the field."

Mr. Dellinger called the previous question ;

The question being,

"Shall the main question be now put?"

It was decided in the affirmative.

The question then being on the adoption of the amendment,

Mr. Berry, of Prince George's, demanded the yeas and nays.

The demand being sustained,

The yeas and nays were called, and appeared as follows:
