

So the Convention refused to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Stockbridge moved to open the third section to further amendment ;

Decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Stockbridge submitted the following amendment :

Section 3, line fourteen, strike out the words "seventy-nine," and insert the word "eighty;"

Decided in the affirmative.

Mr. Belt moved to open the third section of the report for further amendment ;

Decided in the negative.

The report, as amended, was then read the third time, and gassed by yeas and nays as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs.	Greene,	Pugh,
Goldsborough, P't	Hebb,	Purnell,
Abbott,	Hoffman,	Ridgely,
Annan,	Hopkins,	Russell,
Audoun,	Hopper,	Sands,
Baker,	Keefer,	Schley,
Barron,	Kennard,	Scott,
Carter,	King,	Smith, of Carroll,
Cunningham,	Larsh,	Smith, of Wor.,
Cushing,	Markey,	Stirling,
Daniel,	Mayhugh,	Stockbridge,
Davis, of Wash.,	McComas,	Swope,
Dellinger,	Mullikin,	Sykes,
Earle,	Murray,	Thomas,
^{ES} Ecker,	Negley,	Todd,
^{ES} Farrow,	Nyman,	Wooden—48.
Galloway,	Parker,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs.	Brown,	Horsey,
Belt,	Chambers,	Lee,
Billingsley,	Clarke,	Miller,
Bond,	Dent,	Parran,
Briscoe,	Duvall,	Wickard—14.

On motion of Mr. Stirling,

The Convention took a recess until 8 o'clock.