

of impeachment in all cases, but a majority of all the members elected must concur in an impeachment; all impeachments shall be tried by the Senate, and when sitting for that purpose, the Senators shall be on oath, or affirmation, to do justice according to law and evidence, but no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of all the Senators elected.

Sec. 26. Any bill may originate in either House of the General Assembly, and be altered, amended, or rejected by the other; but no bill shall originate in either House during the last ten days of the session, nor become a law, until it be read on three different days of the session in each House, unless three-fourths of the members of the House, where such bill is pending, shall so determine.

Sec. 27. No bill shall become a law, unless it be passed in each House by a majority of the whole number of members elected, and on its final passage, the ayes and noes be recorded.

Sec. 28. The style of all laws of this State shall be, "Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland," and all laws shall be passed by original bill, and every law enacted by the General Assembly shall embrace but one subject, and that shall be described in the title, and no law nor section of a law, shall be revived or amended by reference to its title or section only; and it shall be the duty of the General Assembly, in amending any article or section of the Code of Laws of this State, to enact the same as the said article or section would read when amended; and whenever the General Assembly shall enact any Public General Law, not amendatory of any section or article in the said Code, it shall be the duty of the General Assembly to enact the same in articles and sections, in the same manner as the said Code is arranged, and to provide for the publication of all additions and alterations which may be made to the said Code.

Sec. 29. Every bill, when passed by the General Assembly and sealed with the Great Seal, shall be presented to the Governor, who shall sign the same in the presence of the presiding officers and Chief Clerks of the Senate and House of Delegates; every law shall be recorded in the office of the Court of Appeals, and, in due time, be printed, published and certified under the Great Seal to the several Courts in the same manner as has been heretofore usual in this State.

Sec. 30. No law passed by the General Assembly shall take effect until the first day of June next after the session at which it may be passed, unless it be otherwise expressly
