

Courts shall be Courts of Record, and each shall have a seal to be used in the authentication of all process issuing from them. The process and official character of Justices of the Peace shall be authenticated as hath heretofore been practised in this State or may hereafter be prescribed by law.

Sec. 2. The Judges of the several Courts, except the Judges of the Orphans' Courts, shall be citizens of the United States, and residents of this State not less than five years next preceding their election or appointment by the Executive in case of a vacancy, and not less than one year next preceding their election or appointment residents in the Judicial District or Circuit, as the case may be, for which they may be elected or appointed. They shall be not less than thirty years of age at the time of their election, and selected from those who have been admitted to practice law in this State, and who are most distinguished for integrity, wisdom and sound legal knowledge.

Sec. 3. The Judges of the Court of Appeals shall be elected by the qualified voters of the State; and the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall designate the Chief Justice; and the Judges of the Judicial Circuits shall be elected by the qualified voters of their respective circuits. Each Judge of the Court of Appeals, and of each Judicial Circuit shall hold his office for the term of fifteen years from the time of his election, or until he shall have attained the age of seventy years, whichever may first happen, and be re-eligible thereto until he shall have attained the age of seventy years and not after.

Sec. 4. Any Judge shall be removed from office by the Governor on conviction in a Court of Law of incompetency, of willful neglect of duty, misbehavior in office, or any other crime, or on impeachment according to this Constitution or the laws of the State; or on the address of the General Assembly, two-thirds of each House concurring in such address, and the accused having been notified of the charges against him, and had opportunity of making his defence.

Sec. 5. In case of the death, resignation, removal or other disqualification of a Judge of any Court of this State, except of the Orphans' Court, the Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall thereupon appoint a person duly qualified to fill said office until the next general election thereafter, whether for members of the General Assembly or county officers, whichever shall first occur, at which time an election shall be held as herein prescribed for a Judge, who shall hold said office for the term of fifteen years, and until the election and qualification of his successor.
