

ments were in favor of the said proposed amendment or amendments, he shall, by proclamation, declare said amendment or amendments to be part of the Constitution of this State. When two or more amendments shall be submitted by the General Assembly to the qualified Electors of the State at the same election, they shall be so submitted that the Electors may vote for or against each amendment separately.

Sec. 2. Whenever two-thirds of the members elected to each branch of the General Assembly, shall think it necessary to call a Convention to revise, amend or change this Constitution, they shall recommend to the electors to vote, at the next election, for members of the General Assembly, for or against a Convention: and if a majority of all the electors voting at said election, shall have voted for a Convention, the General Assembly shall, at their next session, provide by law for calling the same. The Convention shall consist of as many members as both houses of the General Assembly, who shall be chosen in the same manner and shall meet within three months after their election, for the purpose aforesaid.

Sec. 3. At the general election to be held in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, and in each twentieth year thereafter, the question "shall there be a Convention to revise, alter or amend the Constitution?" shall be submitted to the electors of the State; and in case a majority of all the electors voting at such election, shall decide in favor of a Convention, the General Assembly, at its next session shall provide by law, for the election of delegates, and the assembling of such Convention, as is provided in the preceding section; but no amendment of this Constitution, agreed upon by any Convention assembled in pursuance of this article, shall take effect until the same shall have been submitted to the electors of the State, and adopted by a majority of those voting thereon.

ARTICLE XII. SCHEDULE.

SECTION 1. Every person holding any office created by or existing under the Constitution or Laws of the State, the entire amount of whose pay or compensation received for the discharge of his official duties, shall exceed the yearly sum of three thousand dollars, except wherein otherwise provided by this Constitution, shall keep a book, in which shall be entered every sum or sums of money received by him, or on his account, as a payment or compensation for his performance of official duties, a copy of which entries in said book, verified by the oath of the officer by whom it is directed to be
