

YEAS AND NAYS—

Appointments, Tenure of Office, &c.

On the third reading and final passage of the amended report, 656.

Apprenticeship of Negroes.

On the adoption of an order by Mr. Todd, to provide by law for the apprenticeship of negroes who are emancipated and are minors, 171.

On an amendment submitted by Mr. Jones, of Somerset, to an amendment by Mr. Miller, to provide by law for all negroes manumitted by the new Constitution, to be placed in the condition of apprentices to their owners, males until they are twenty-one years old, and females until they are eighteen, 311, 312.

On putting the main question on an amendment by Mr. Todd, to provide for binding out minors of emancipated negroes by the Orphans' Courts, 593, 594.

On a motion to reconsider the last vote taken, 595.

On an amendment of Mr. Stockbridge, to the amendment of Mr. Todd, on the question of binding out minor negroes, 596.

On the first and second clauses of Mr. Todd's amendment, 597, 598.

On a motion of Mr. Ridgely, to informally postpone the consideration of an amendment by Mr. Audouin, on the question of negro apprenticeship. Lost, 605.

On the amendment of Mr. Audouin, prescribing the manner in which negroes shall be apprenticed by the Orphans' Courts, 604, 606.

Basis of Representation.

On an amendment submitted by Mr. Berry, of Prince George's, to adopt the minority report of the Committee on the Basis of Representation, 351.

On an amendment submitted by Mr. Schley, to the Report on the Basis of Representation, 353.

On a motion of Mr. Cushing, to dispense with the reading of the report on Basis of Representation, 635.