DECLARATION OF RIGHTS.

The Convention then resumed the consideration of the report of the Committee on the Declaration of Rights.

The pending question was stated to be on the amendment to the 14th article, moved by Mr. Scott, which amendment had been amended on motion of Mr. Stirling to read as follows:

"That paupers ought not to be assessed for the support of the Government, but every other person in the State, or person holding property therein, ought to contribute his proportion of public taxes for the support of Government, according to his actual worth in real or personal property; and fines, duties or taxes may properly and justly be imposed or laid on persons or property for the good government and benefit of the community."

Mr. GALLOWAY. I propose to offer an amendment to the amendment as amended, by striking out all after the word "that" and inserting what I send to the Secretary's desk.

The PRESIDENT. The motion of the gentleman is not in order; the Convention having adopted the amendment proposed by the gentleman from Baltimore (Mr. Stirling) in lieu of the one submitted by the gentleman from Cecil (Mr. Scott) it is not now competent to strike out any portion of it. It can be amended by adding to it, but in no other way, unless by a vote to reconsider.

Mr. STIRLING. I move to reconsider the vote by which my amendment was adopted.

The question being taken, the motion to reconsider was agreed to, upon a division, ayes 34; noes 30.

The question recurred upon the amendment of Mr. Stirling to the amendment of Mr. Scott.

Mr. STIRLING asked and obtained leave to withdraw his amendment.

The question was then stated to be upon the amendment originally proposed by Mr. Scott.

Mr. GALLOWAY. And to that I propose to offer an amendment: Strike out all after the word "that" in the first line and insert the following:

"The levying of taxes by the poll is grievous and oppressive, and ought to be prohibited; that paupers ought not to be assessed for the support of the Government, but every other person in the State, or person holding property therein, ought to contribute his proportion of public taxes for the support of the Government, according to his actual worth in real or personal property; yet fines, duties or taxes may properly and justly be imposed or laid with a political view, for the good government and benefit of the community."

Mr. STIRLING. Is not the original article as reported before the House?

The PRESIDENT. It is, with pending amendments.

Mr. STIRLING. Is not the amendment of
