

1 hope inherent in this proposal without the necessity or 2 the ability to carry out that hope. I would urge the 3 amendment be adopted.

4 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Bennett.

5 For what purpose does Delegate Pullen rise?

6 DELEGATE PULLEN: I want to oppose the amend-
7 ment.

8 DELEGATE JAMES: I recognize Delegate Bennett.

9 DELEGATE BENNETT: Mr. Chairman, ladies and 10 gentlemen of the Committee, I went along with Delegate 11 Scanlan in opposing some of these amendments initially, 12 but I know when the Convention has spoken and what its 13 intents and ideas are, and I am willing to accept that 14 decision and not continue to reiterate and object to 15 what their plain meaning is.

16 What we have here is trying to establish a
17 concept. A concept is a goal. We are not writing a 18 constitution alone of restraints and retributions and don'ts.
19 We are undertaking to set up certain goals and if ever
20 there has been a goal in this nation, it is the concept 21 of economic security. It has been implemented on the
