

1 scandalize this Constitution.

2 Mr. Chairman, Members of this Convention, when 3 I left the fourth district of Baltimore City, I promised
4 that I would not forget from whence I had come, and I
5 haven't, but if I were to listen a few minutes it would 6 appear one of my cohorts has the hand of Jacob but has the 7 voice of Aesop. When he gets back home he will wonder
8 what happened to him.

9 Fellow Delegates, a lot of things have happened
10 in this Convention. It seems that a lot of people in 11 Maryland do not trust our judgment. We voted for the 12 single member districts, but it would appear that those who 13 hope to save the destiny of this Convention are going to 14 great lengths to convince us that we must move backward,
15 retreat from this position.

16 Mr. Chairman, maybe this gets into the area of 17 personal privilege, but at this time some of the Delegates
18 of this Convention are being pressured. They are being 19 told that if you do not switch your vote from the single 20 member district to the multi-member district that then we 21 shall withdraw our vote for economic opportunity.
