

1 I am like Delegate Harry Taylor in the back
2 row. When they gather the sense of the Committee, at 3 this time I think they do gather it, but I think it is 4 hard to speak. I think the unfortunate thing
5 is the Committee is ready to move, and I think it 6 is most unfortunate that the issue about which we are 7 speaking now is one that most of you really cannot 8 appreciate.

9 It is unfortunate. I have watched this 10 Committee operate. I have listened to the attorneys, the 11 arguments they have made for their particular case, for 12 the things that they think are important, and I think 13 they are important too. For as long as you hold this in 14 your hand that you understand and you think it is 15 important, you work for what you think is right. I think 16 in this case this particular policy statement is a weak
17 one, but I think it is right.

18 Apparently the policy statement is as far as 19 you go. If you go no further than that, I ask you go
20 that far. Within the past week I happened to be watching 21 it very carefully, and I listened to one of our leading
