

1 senators in the United States. He says our whole country
2 is in trouble. We have problems. He commented that our 3 country has a wealth of economic and natural resources and 4 yet we have problems. He continued by saying our biggest 5 problem is our country does not have the will to do what 6 it knows it has to do, and I think this is what we are 7 confronted with today, the will to do what we know is right.

8 I would agree with Delegate Adkins to a 9 certain extent, that we put this policy statement in,
10 and it may not have any real effect, but if we are going 11 to deal with it, as we have done with other parts of the 12 Constitution, for any say, I would say let's put a policy
13 statement in and let's build an article around it so that 14 when we get through we not only have the policy state-15 ment, an innocuous policy statement, but we also have the 16 machinery by which this state moves.

17 We can petition for roads. If this state can 18 find the funds to build roads and do all the other things
19 that it thinks are important and forget people then I
20 think the state is remiss.

21 I don't think we have to wait for the federal
