

1 Henderson.

2 DELEGATE HENDERSON: Mr. Chairman and fellow
3 members, since I have been quoted or referred to by Mr.
4 Willoner, I feel that I must first try to make my position
5 perfectly clear.

6 In 1947 I became interested in this subject. At 7 that time I was serving on the Court of Appeals and I 8 delivered a paper on the subject before a law club and became 9 interested in the matter. Chief Judge O. L. Marbury and 10 Judge Markle who were my colleagues on the court at that 11 time urged me and I was asked by the executive committee to 12 make a speech before the Bar Association at Atlantic City
13 which I did, and that is the paper to which he referred 14 which was published in 1947.

15 Since this had been the subject of wide publicity
16 before, and the efforts to change it which had been proposed
17 by such eminent authorities as Judge Markle, Chief Judge
18 Dennis and Judge Chestnut from the federal bench, all un-
19 availing, my approach was not to attack or make a frontal
20 attack on the amendment, which I would have preferred to do,
21 but accepting the amendment to point out the many features
