

1 I think it is well. It is only a few rare occasions like this
2 that I hear the theoreticians say we should take it out.

3 I was glad to hear what Delegate Willoner
4 said because he practiced law on both sides, as a prosecuting
5 attorney and as a defense attorney.

6 I was equally glad to hear what Delegate Dorsey
7 and Anderson said.

8 Not only have they handled this matter from the 9 prosecution attorney standpoint, they have handled it and 10 operated under it as defense attorneys and both of them have
11 had vast experience on the bench, so from many angles
12 they have seen that this is a good workable provision
13 and should be left in the Constitution, and I hope this 14 amendment fails.

15 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Storm, do you wish to 16 be recognized?

17 DELEGATE STORM: I was going to give a little
18 homily example of how this works justice.

19 DELEGATE JAMES: You are against the amendment?

20 DELEGATE STORM: Yes.

21 DELEGATE JAMES: Does anyone wish to speak in
