

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher, will you
2 yield to a question?

3 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: In my present obliterated
4 state I yield to a question, yes.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Boileau.

6 DELEGATE BOILEAU: Do the words "legislative or
7 executive" also mean, would they refer to local government
8 units?

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

10 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: They could be so interpreted,
11 but it is my intention, and I believe it was the intention
12 of the Commission, to have them refer to the State legis-
13 lative body and its committees, that is to say, the 14 General Assembly, and the committees created pursuant there-
15 to, and executive means the State executive.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Boileau, any further
17 questions?

18 DELEGATE BOILEAU: I just have one question, because 19 it seems to be all-encompassing as it is written now, and 20 I would suggest if that is the import or desire of the maker
21 of this motion, that it be changed; that is, the word "State"
