

1 goes far beyond what anybody contemplates. It does very
2 dangerous things, and the very nature of the questions
3 asked and the answers of Delegate Willoner indicate to you
4 how dangerous a field we are embarked upon if we put this in
5 the Constitution.

6 Two of the three experts who came out said keep
7 the legislature out of this. I won't read their quotes
8 to you, but I would like to at the appropriate time and maybe
9 this is the appropriate time to offer an amendment to this
10 proposed section.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: If you have concluded your
12 discussion in the controlled portion of the debate,
13 you can offer the amendment.

14 Have you finished?

15 DELEGATE KIEFER: Well, if I have run out of
16 time I have finished, yes, sir. (Laughter).

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Is it your amendment F?

18 DELEGATE KIEFER: Yes, sir.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Pages will please distribute
20 the amendment F.

21 DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. Chairman, I don't want to
