

1 It is imperative that we take action on as much
2 as possible of committee recommendation, R&P-2. Therefore 3 the Chair proposes that we consider one other amendment which 4 has been offered, and which deals, once again, with the right
5 of removal of civil cases in the hope that this can be 6 speedily disposed of, and then to suggest that the Committee
7 of the Whole rise, and report its action with respect to all 8 of committee recommendation 2, except with respect to 9 sections 10, 11, and 13. These are the sections dealing 10 with juries of law, as well as fact. No imprisonment
11 for debt on the grand jury indictment. This would leave
12 those three sections open for further consideration next
13 Tuesday, and would permit those interested in the question
14 to conclude such research as they desire to make.

15 This would also permit the Committee on Style in 16 the recess of the next few days to consider and perhaps 17 report on the action of the Committee of the Whole with 18 respect to the balance of Committee recommendation R&P-2.

19 Delegate Hardwick, you have sent up an amendment
20 dealing with slavery and involuntary servitude which the 21 Chair would regard as germane to the subject matter of
