

1 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President --

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Weidemeyer, may I
3 interrupt for a moment? This is, of course, the same
4 subject matter debated at length yesterday. The Chair
5 would sincerely hope that debate is held to a minimum.
6 Delegate Weidemeyer.

7 DELEGATR WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President, I will 8 try to make it very brief and I do hope that debate
9 will not be extended because I think I can make clear in 10 just a few moments the purpose of this amendment.

11 We had considerable objection from certain 12 areas, and after a lot of work on it yesterday, and 13 Delegate Johnson spent valuable time in talking to various 14 ones, and there seemed to be a lot of objection because 15 they thought it would include land condemnation cases.

16 Now we have on the last line specifically 17 exempted land condemnation cases, and there is reason for 18 that, and just as it should be so, because juries that 19 have to place land value on land being condemned ought to 20 be able to view the land. It would be difficult. We 21 agree with you, we specifically exempted those cases.
