

1 DELEGATE JAMES: Mr. Chairman, I would like
2 to oppose this amendment. This amendment includes
3 equity cases. Now, let's consider an injunction case
4 in which it is frequently important to have an immediate 5 hearing, possibly for the purpose of dissolving the 6 injunction, possibly a question of whether the injunction
7 should be continued. Speed of hearing is very important.
8 Now if you are going to subject this type of proceeding
9 to automatic right of removal, certainly it would impair
10 the efficient and orderly administration of justice.
11 Then too you might have an ejection case in which it 12 would be just as important to view the land, to look at the 13 boundaries on the ground as in a condemnation case and 14 there may be many others. This is a very, very unfortunate
15 provision. It will impede the administration of justice
16 and I earnestly solicit your opposition.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Any other delegate desire to 18 speak in favor of the amendment?

19 Delegate Johnson.

20 DELEGATE JOHNSON: Mr. Chairman, ladies and 21 gentlemen, I urge you to adopt this amendment. You will
