

1 traditional, where you have no right to elect a jury,
2 such as the cases tried on ancient writ quo warranto,
3 for example. Why haven't you made exception for them?

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Clagett.

5 DELEGATE CLAGETT: To be perfectly frank, I
6 don't believe in those cases it would be necessary as a
7 practical matter.

8 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Case.

9 DELEGATE CASE: Hasn't the Court of Appeals
10 held in a number of cases that, in situations of which 11 I am talking about, cases of the ancient writs there is 12 no right of removal, even though they are law cases?

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Clagett.

14 DELEGATE CLAGETT: That is true.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further discussion on
16 Amendment 25-A?

17 Delegate Grant.

18 DELEGATE GRANT: I would like to oppose on
19 two grounds.

20 The first is the one I stated yesterday, in 21 advocating we put in equity cases and that is a simple
