

1 home, I have some mixed emotions on it. I think that one
2 thing that can be said though, that certainly one thing
3 that the majority and the minority report both firmly
4 agree upon that is that it is our concern for education
5 and the sincere desire to perpetuate and guarantee the best 6 educational program that we can for our children and for 7 the State of Maryland.

8 The only difference as I see between the 9 majority and minority reports is the approach to it. Be-
10 cause I basically agree with the simplicity of the minority
11 report on a philosophical basis only, and feel that educa-
12 tion in the future can better be served by continuing 13 with flexible implementation as needs may occur, I found
14 that I had to join in the minority report.

15 To give the majority report under these circum-
16 stances I think would be hypocritical on my own part,
17 therefore Delegate Wheatley will very eloquently give 18 the majority report.

19 Because of my conflict as Chairman of the Com-
20 mittee, I feel that it would be equally as bad to give 21 the minority report and therefore Delegate Lord, not in
