

1 parenthesis, will give the minority report. As for myself,
2 I intend to vote and probably remain discretely silent on 3 this, but may I just leave this one thought.

4 I certainly can predict no blood bath nor am I
5 bitterly opposed to anything or anyone, I gave that up
6 years ago and I am sure that this educational process will be 7 ~~hammered~~ out in a democratic and amiable manner.

8 Thank you very much, sir.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Under the circumstances, the 10 Chair recognizes Delegate Wheatley, Vice Chairman of the 11 Committee, to make a presentation on behalf of the Commit-
12 tee. I request that he come forward to the Clerk's desk.

13 DELEGATE WHEATLEY: Mr. Chairman, and fellow
14 delegates: This is perhaps one of the most heralded
15 moments of the Convention. As our Chairman has indicated, 16 the Committee on General Provisions will finally report on 17 education. While I have not solicited the opportunity to 18 make this report, nonetheless I feel it is of service to 19 the Convention to present the views of the majority of the 20 Committee and I might add as is traditional with most of 21 the issues of the General Provisions Committee there was a
