

1 desks in the committee room early each morning. As long
2 as the sessions are short, this will not pose any problem.
3 The reporter types up the transcript almost immediately.
4 We will have to have a night crew working, but they will 5 do so and distribute the transcripts to you.

6 These transcripts, as the sessions continue,
7 are likely to become more and more bulky, and this will,
8 of course, at times cause some slowdown in the distribu-
9 tion. In order to enable you to keep tabs of what you
10 have, the pages will be numbered consecutively, not sep-
11 arately for each session. The first session, I think,
12 went to Page 59; the second session from Page 60 to 88.
13 We will continue that way so that you can always tell which,
14 if any, sessions are missing from your compilation by 15 reference to the pages.

16 In order to retain that continuity, there will 17 be a title page for each session, but it also will bear 18 the regular page number in order. In other words, the 19 title page for the first day, the second session, is
