

1 gotten through the first two zones with the hands waving,
2 et cetera, and the correct answers given; and she finally 3 reached with very dramatic gestures to the top of the 4 board and said, Now, who can tell me what zone this is,
5 and John, bless his little heart, who hadn't answered a 6 question all year, and I believe this was the month of 7 April, jumped from his seat and said, I do. It is the 8 twilight zone.

9 Thank you very much.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Lord.

11 DELEGATE LORD: I yield three minutes to Dele-
12 gate Gallagher.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

14 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. Chairman, ladies and 15 gentlemen, in urging the adoption of Section 1 of the 16 Minority Report to replace Sections 1 and 4 of the Majority
17 Report, it would seem advisable to address myself initially 18 to the question of approach.

19 There is no disagreement about the fact that 20 Maryland is committed to provide a more and better public 21 education. The first object of our concern must be the