

1 background and educate him in a way which is different
2 than the education which would be afforded to children
3 who have conversations at home; and thus at the end, all
4 things being equal, that education which is given to the 5 child gives that child the same chance to develop as any
6 other child.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Your time has expired.

8 MR. BAMBERGER: The concept is one of output or 9 product rather than input.

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Wheatley allowed you
11 further time, Delegate Bamberger.

12 DELEGATE WHEATLEY: That is all right.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Lord.

14 DELEGATE LORD: Mr. Chairman, I will yield three
15 minutts to Delegate Winslow.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Winslow.

17 DELEGATE WINSLOW: Mr. Chairman, what I wanted
18 to say in particular in this area has been so ably said
19 by Delegate Raley that I could, I suppose, merely say
20 "Amen" and sit down, but I should like to raise a point or 21 two before I do.
