

1 the Committee.

2 DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. Chairman and ladies and 3 gentlemen of the Committee of the Whole, GP-9 is the 4 General Provisions Recommendation on the retention of the 5 common law theory as derived from the ancient English
6 law. I frankly confess that I feel rather devastated
7 and disappointed because I had an excellent speech prepared
8 to give to you trying to retain what you have before
9 you known as GP-9.

10 However, as a result of some problems that we 11 had dealing with the Transitory Provisions, the imple-
12 mentation of this Constitution, trying to blend it in 13 with the present one, it was decided, and this is with 14 the approval of the Committee that we would request that 15 you would adopt an amendment which I believe is lettered
16 Amendment A.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Will the pages please distribute
18 Amendment A?

19 DELEGATE BOYER: And if I may, Mr. Chairman,
20 I will then speak on this amendment A, rather than GP-9.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.
