

1 the fears which you express.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Lloyd Taylor.

3 DELEGATE LLOYD TAYLOR: What I am trying to
4 say is this would seem to conflict with the personal
5 rights proposal on writ of habeas corpus mentioned in the
6 constitution.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

8 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: To the extent I can, I
9 say quite definitely and emphatically it is not the 10 intention of the Committee that this be the vehicle for 11 the suspension of any personal rights guaranteed in the 12 constitution.

13 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Lloyd Taylor.

14 DELEGATE LLOYD TAYLOR: If the General
15 Assembly can provide for temporary suspension of the 16 continuity of state and local public offices and govern-
17 ment operations, wouldn't this in effect many times work to 18 the suspension of certain personal rights?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

20 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: This does not authorize
21 the General Assembly to suspend the operation of govern-
