

1 Now I think if we become clearly familiar with 2 this procedure, we will accomplish the two objectives
3 of the rule. That is, to have the calendar fixed so 4 that you know ahead of time what is going to happen at 5 any session and at the same time accomplish the purpose
6 of having the Convention and not the officers of the 7 Convention control the calendar.

8 Now, the second thing I do not think we will be 9 able to accomplish this afternoon, but I hope to have in 10 operation by Monday, and that is to have the calendar
11 of committee activities posted every afternoon on a daily
12 basis. This is going to require each committee to plan 13 in advance its schedule at least by noontime so that 14 the copies can be accumulated and put into one calendar,
15 reproduced. These will be posted on bulletin boards
16 but also in addition, there will be a copy of that calen-
17 dar placed on the desk in the committee room of each 18 delegate.

19 At the meeting of committee chairmen it was 20 suggested that in order to permit delegates who are 21 interested in speaking for or against a proposal pending
