

1 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Corporations may be
2 formed under general laws but shall not be created
3 by special act except in cases where no special law exists
4 providing for -- yes, I think that would more aptly
5 clarify the meaning of that part of the sentence.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Clagett, a further
7 question?

8 DELEGATE CLAGETT: No, the chair took my words.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: I am sorry.

10 Delegate Scanlan.

11 DELEGATE SCANLAN: Chairman Gallagher, in your 12 presentation you noted that there was some concern if 13 the matter were left to the transitional legislation.

14 It wasn't clear to me today, nor has it been for 15 the last three weeks, whether this is a concern about the 16 constitutional authority of the General Assembly to 17 continue the restrictions on the exemption in statutes
18 or concern they will yield to the blandishments of the 19 B&O.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

21 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: The suggestion has been
