

1 it just the way it is forever.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: The objection is more than
3 one of style. The reason for it is so that one may
4 read the constitution and understand it and not have
5 to resort to another publication to find out what is in it.

6 Delegate Scanlan.

7 DELEGATE SCANLAN: I understand the reason
8 for the rule and I agree with it, but as the Chairman
9 outlined the problem, this is a problem probably unique
10 to the B&O, and may go away anyway, so we don't have the 11 usual concern about people reading the constitution and
12 seeing at a glance what it means.

13 The B&O lawyers will know the background very 14 well.

15 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Bothe.

16 DELEGATE BOTHE: Delegate Gallagher, I was
17 wondering why we wouldn't at least cut lines 30 to 36
18 dealing with the grant of legislative corporate charter.
19 Since that is taken care of in LB-2 under 3.17 it doesn't
20 seem to have any application to the problem of the B&O.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.
