1 own ~~issue~~. It is understood, of course, that submission
2 of any proposal by the Committee on Personal Rights and 3 Preamble or by its Chairman does not constitute an en-4 dorsement or approval of the proposal, but is a means of 5 getting it before the Convention.

6 We hesitate to submit a deadline for submission 7 of proposal, but promptness in submitting them will give 8 the Committee a better opportunity for hearing to research 9 the dates and organization. This has to be organized in 10 groups so there can be orderly hearings. Witnesses will 11 be invited by the Committee, but we want to point out 12 that anyone, any individual, delegate, organization or 13 group who is submitting or is interested in any proposal 14 will, upon specific request, be given an opportunity to 15 appear before the Committee, and I want to repeat what 16 everybody knows, all meetings are open to the public and to 17 the press.

18 THE PRESIDENT: Thank you. Any further announce-19 ments? Delegate Gallagher?

20 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. Chairman, this morning
21 the subcommittee studied the overlap of elective matters with other committees of this Convention, and it was
