

1 suggest that what 2.01 speaks about is really the 2 definition of who is a qualified voter, and then section
3 3.06 picks that up. Section 2.01 doesn't say or does not 4 enumerate or limit the candidates for whom those people
5 may vote. It says these are qualified voters. Then 6 section 3.06 says that those qualified voters who reside
7 in that legislative district are eligible to vote for those 8 members of the General Assembly.

9 THE PRESIDENT: Does that answer your inquiry,
10 Delegate Key?

11 DELEGATE KEY: The only problem I still have 12 is that there is still not set down a qualification for 13 voters of the district, is there?

14 THE PRESIDENT: There is, but it is in another 15 section.

16 Delegate Key.

17 DELEGATE KEY: It says "residence", right? You
18 have to be a resident of the district but it doesn't say
19 how long in the other section.

20 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss, did you want to 21 comment further?
