

1 not more than three minutes, and then somebody would move
2 the previous question.

3 Is that acceptable?

4 Is there any objection to the amendment proposed 5 by Delegate Weidemeyer, notwithstanding the fact that it is 6 not printed? The Chair hears none. The proposed amendment 7 is to change the word "five" in line 26 on page 4 to the 8 word "three". It has been offered by Delegate Weidemeyer.

9 Is there a second.

10 (The motion was duly seconded)

11 THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate
12 Weidemeyer for not more than three minutes.

13 DELEGATE WEIDEMEYER: Mr. President, I will 14 try to hold it down to that, but I think it is more 15 obvious now than when we considered this matter before, that 16 three percent is not the logical figure to place in there.
17 That is the number that we have had in our Constitution,
18 and when we were adopting a new Constitution -- and there
19 are many, many new features, and there will be a raft 20 of legislation, certainly somewhere along the line, and 21 in many instances, the legislature may pass some acts which
