2 In closing, I won't quote Delegate Sherbow, but 3 I believe everybody read his quote in the press. Thank 4 you.

5 THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Sherbow.

6 DELEGATE SHERBOW: Mr. President, ladies and 7 gentlemen of the Convention: I have too much affection
8 and esteem for Delegate Kosakowski to want to mesmerize
9 him. I think that in all the years we have known each 10 other he has respected my views, and I have respected his.

11 He favors lotteries, and I don't. I don't think 12 that is the real issue. I don't think the real issue is 13 whether or not you leave it in the Constitution or take 14 it out. I think the real issue is whether or not you 15 are going to open Maryland to the kind of evils that are 16 occurring in other parts of the country.

17 Ladies and gentlemen, I think that in the last 18 debate we pretty well went through the entire picture as 19 it dealt with lotteries. Let me just sum it up. 36 States
20 have a ban on lotteries in their Constitution. Maryland
21 likewise has this ban. Don't forget we have to go before
