

1 have just adopted, transitional provisions, that Board does
2 not go out of existence until January the sixth, 1971.

3 Now, that provides the legislative year of 1968,
4 1969, 1970 for something to be done with respect to what 5 we have provided in the Constitution and that is to estab-
6 lish a Board of Review.

7 Under Section 4.24 of the executive article we 8 provide a Board of Review. We provide who its members shall 9 be and then we state that the Board shall act in such 10 manner and have such powers as the General Assembly may 11 prescribe by law. So we leave it to the General Assembly
12 to prescribe the powers that the new Board of Review is to 13 have.

14 Now, let us take a look at what the transitional 15 legislation is.

16 Section 14 states the following: Upon the 17 termination of the legal existence of the Board of Public
18 Works". Now, that as I recalled to you before is January 6, 19 1971, all of its powers, all of the powers and duties of the 20 Board of Public Works shall be vested in the Board of Review
21 so by this legislation we are transferring to the Board of
