

1 an instance where you have a transfer of power to a new 2 board which is not justified by the definition of what 3 transitional legislation should be. It is not in the 4 criteria. It is outside of it. Somebody may raise the 5 question, well, since the Board is to have such powers as 6 the General Assembly is going to prescribe, what is wrong
7 with transferring it in this transitional legislation and 8 then June or July the first, 1968, if they want to change
9 it, let them change it.

10 The difference is that in order to get a real 11 change they would have to, if these powers are to be trans-
12 ferred, they would have to get a law approved by the 13 Governor and if the Governor decided to veto that change,
14 they would have to have the votes to override the veto.
15 This is a different matter from carrying out what is in the 16 Constitution.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

18 DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. Chairman, there is no
19 question but what the Board of Public Works has a great 20 deal of very insignificant duties.

21 If you look at the agenda of the Board of Public
