

1 Now, I understand Delegate Gleason's motive
2 and I understand the problem that concerns him. I am sure
3 that he would much rather have the Legislature since it is 4 vested with this power able to act without the possibility
5 of veto by the Governor, but there hasn't been anything that 6 we have said or done in this Constitution; when we say as 7 prescribed by law that doesn't mean a statute which the 8 Governor may veto. You can't do this by a concurrent
9 resolution of both houses of the Legislature. We are 10 asking for trouble. We are dealing with something where 11 dotting of I's and crossing of T's is terribly important
12 and when the staff got together this Section 14 and worked 13 it out as carefully as they did, it was in order to 14 establish that the rights and duties moved from the Board
15 of Public Works to the new Board of Review, but the Legis-
16 lature has a perfect right to take from the Board of Public
17 Review and it should those uninteresting, unimportant
18 duties that Delegate Morgan referred to.

19 In the interest of a tidy document, in the 20 interest of a document that is well thought out, carefully 21 designed, and that it is a mosaic that ought not to be
