

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Murray, do you yield?

2 DELEGATE E. CHURCHILL MURRAY: Yes.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate White.

4 DELEGATE WHITE: Delegate Murray, could you tell
5 me the racial identity of that employee? (Laughter)

6 DELEGATE E. CHURCHILL MURRAY: I feel sure that
7 the judge was pure Anglo-Saxon.

8 I also feel sure that his friend who had cut
9 the yard for him was of that race who afford so much wit,
10 so much humor, so much music to all of Maryland without
11 which I don't know what on earth we would do. (Applause)

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate White.

13 DELEGATE WHITE: Delegate Murray, if you could
14 answer one more question, I could draw my own conclusions.
15 Could he cook? (Laughter)

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate James.

17 DELEGATE JAMES: This is a bit of frivolity for
18 which legislators are very severely criticized. (Laughter)

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Pullen, you started all
20 of this. Do you want to finish it?

21 DELEGATE PULLEN: Mr. Chairman, Mrs. Marx has
